

SAMRES

Samres first foreign assignment

Samres has won the procurement to create mobility service for Lääne-Virum county in Estland.

The mission includes to prepare rules for mobility service and basis for procurement of transporters and call-center. It is therefore only an investigative mission and the mission to operate the call center will be tendered at a later stage.

Responsible is Agnes Salundi, Operations Manager of Tartu